

National Regional Arts Fellowships Extension 2021

LIST OF RECIPIENTS

Applicant Name Kath Melbourne
Location Sandford, Tas.
Fellowship Category Creative & Professional Development
Project Title Changemaker in Residence

Project Description:

This fellowship is an exciting opportunity for Kath Melbourne to investigate personal and systemic change and evolution in the arts. She will centre herself at The LongHouse in Hobart and The Phoenix Project in Cobden, Victoria and instigate a relationship with The Turtle Island Institute in Ontario.

Applicant Name Sara Ferrington
Location Beauty Point, TAS, 7270
Fellowship Category Creative & Professional Development
Project Title Building a new community festival

Project Description:

Sara will undertake creative and business development of a new multi arts community festival in Beaconsfield, Tasmania, consisting of work created and produced by children and young people. This early stage development will cover building on new and existing partnerships with other organisations that focus on children and young people, designing a project roadmap, timeline, and budget for the inaugural festival in 2023, and connecting with local councils, business groups, and all levels of government to seek funding and approvals required.

Applicant Name Alysha Herrmann
Location Glossop, SA, 5344
Fellowship Category First Timer - Creative or Professional Development
Project Title Novel November Residency

Project Description:

Novel November is a self-directed residency project embedding writer, performance maker and community organiser Alysha Herrmann into her local community as a catalyst for creative exploration, experimentation and connection.